From a letter written by Laura Clark (Mrs. Egbert VanSchaack Chamberlin) Aug. 28, 1926, to Mrs. Wm. Gibbs, Litchfield, Ct.,
Huldah Gibbs, my great-grandmother, died at Ripley, Ill in 1851. I never saw her, but in 1857 her husband, Ephraim Roberts, spent several months visiting in Dubuque, Iowa, where is daughter Lois and her family were living, including my father Russell Erskine Clark. I remember him very well indeed as I was eight years old that winter.
I have a grandson who is a lieutenant in the army, being a West Point Graduate.
